TOPICAL ISSUES IN PROPERTY LAW

LEASEHOLD ENFRANCHISEMENT: A PORPOISIVE APPROACH?

Adam Rosenthal, Falcon Chambers
and Natasha Rees, Forsters LLP

Chairman: Timothy Fancourt QC

What issues in leasehold enfranchisement or property law generally has the recent High Court decision in Westbrook Dolphin Square Limited v Friends Life Limited brought into focus? To what extent has it clarified them? What problems remain? Adam Rosenthal and Natasha Rees take a dip in the post-Dolphin Square world.

Monday 1st June 2015 6.00pm
Royal College of Surgeons of England

RENEWAL OF BUSINESS TENANCIES - SOME CURRENT ISSUES

Stephen Jourdan QC and Jennifer
Rickard, Nabarro LLP

Chairman: Jonathan Karas QC

60 years after it came into force, Part II of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 continues to throw up legal and practical issues as market and litigation practice changes. These include how the valuation formula in s.34 works in relation to fitting out rent free periods; the assessment of interim rents in the light of Humber Oil Terminals Trustee Limited v Associated British Ports; and the setting up and management of a case opposing a new tenancy on the ground of redevelopment or seeking a redevelopment break clause. Stephen Jourdan QC and Jennifer Rickard provide the benefit of their experience.

Monday 8th June 2015 6.00pm
Royal College of Surgeons of England

SUCCESSFUL CHALLENGES TO ARBITRATION AWARDS - NEVER OR JUST HARDLY EVER?

Kirk Reynolds QC and
William Densham, Eversheds LLP

Chairman: Janet Bignell QC

The Arbitration Act 1996 contains detailed provisions enabling arbitration awards to be challenged on the ground of serious irregularity or mistakes of law. But most attempted challenges fail. Is a successful challenge impossible or just very difficult? Can a useful set of guidelines be drawn up? Kirk Reynolds QC and William Densham share their thoughts.
